FADE IN

EXT. FOREST - DAY TIME

It's mid November 2020. There are nothing but trees around showing the sheer size of the forest. The floor is wet and frosty and almost reflects the brownness of the leaves on the trees. The atmosphere is gloomy and miserable. Benji comes running through the scene out of nowhere running as fast as he can. As he turns a corner he catches his foot and falls hitting the ground hard.

CUT TO BLACK:

TITLE: OUT OF TIME.

Benji is wearing a hoodie and black skinny jeans with expensive trainer shoes. He gives the impression he cares about how he looks and takes pride in his appearance.

Benji gets up dazed and confused to see what he tripped on. It is a can of 'New Coke'.

BENJI

What the hell is this?

Benji leans over to pick up the can. He examines every detail on it, getting more confused the more he looks at it.

BENJI (CONT'D)

This.. This is old... But it looks so new?

He slowly turns to look to his left. There on the floor he sees the body of a boy his age but wearing very outdated clothing that almost seems vintage to Benji. His jeans are blue, shoes white and he wears a checked top with a white shirt underneath. This is all topped off with a beanie All these clothes seem baggy compared to the tight fittings of Benji's clothes.

Hey buddy, you alright? too much to drink?

The boy wakes up scratching his head. Confused, he has no idea where he is.

CHARLIE

I'm 18, I don't drink, I was just riding my bike and woke up here. Who are you?

Charlie stands up with a bit of difficulty.

BENJI

I'm Benji, it's nice to meet you. No idea where your bike is, there's nothing here but it looks like you've taken a bump to the head there. What's your name?

Hmm? Oh, Charlie. Nice to meet you too. I've got an awful headache.

BENJI

Not surprised pal. Listen, come back to mine, i'll call my mum, she'll take a look at your head for you.

Benji takes out his phone to call his mum. Charlie stares at the phone with utter confusion, he has no idea what the phone is or what it does.

What's that?

BENJI

(CONFUSED)

My phone...? How hard did you bang your head?

CHARLIE

Where does it plug in? How do you get signal? Where is the aerial?

BENJI

Come on... let's get you to hospital and get that head checked out...

They then walk off and the scene slowly fades out as we see a title card that says Out Of Time that slowly fades in then out.

FADE OUT:

(THE END)
